Patricia Newton Oil Paint demo

Atas Gospel Chapel, Mon 7 pm, Jan 13

On Monday January 13th at 7 pm there will be an oil painting demonstration by Patricia Newton. This month it will be held at the Atascadero Gospel Church at 8205 Cubaril (corner of Atascadero Ave. and Curbaril Ave.). This demonstration is sponsored by the Atascadero Art Association and is free to the general public.

Patricia has lived on the Central Coast for over 27 years and paints in oil. She is a member of the Oil Painters of America and Portrait Painters of America. She paints in fine layers of oil, called glazing, to get the translucent effect. She also works in colored pencil and watercolor, but her favorite medium is oil.

Her inspiration is the Central Coast, the ocean, hillsides and sunsets, but she also does portrait work by commission. Come join us at 7 pm at the Atascadero Gospel Church and enjoy learning more about oil painting, and get a chance to meet the artist.

Message from our president:

Our 2013 holiday banquet was a success and a great way to round out our year! Excellent food, excellent company, and many new faces! We collected a fair amount of canned goods for loaves and fishes too! Those who were unable to attend were greatly missed, but there's always next year... Speaking of which, the new year is just around the corner and our 2014 membership dues are due. So far the upcoming year's demos are: Oil painting in January, watercolor in February, acrylic in March, and for the first time since I've been a member we have clay work in April, and as always our scholarship recipients in May! We are anticipating a great 2014 year. Please join us and contribute in making the Atascadero Art Association a vibrant thriving matrix for the generation of art!

Holiday Party

Twenty-six members and guests gathered for our Annual Holiday Party in the beautifully decorated community room at the Rancho del Bordo Mobile Home Estates on Monday, December 6, hosted by member and resident, Marilyn Holmberg. They feasted on turkey ham, side dishes and a vast array of desserts. Eric Greening, our liaison to the committee responsible for the new library, gave a report on their current plans. Kay Hirons installed the new board for 2014, and George Asdel delighted the audience with his original poetry, written for this occasion, about Santa's robot helpers. President Deborah Hintergardt and son, Isaac, sang traditional Christmas songs, leading to the highlight of the evening, Deborah's singing of "O Holy Night." Everyone took home a door prize and we ended the evening singing, "We Wish you a Merry Christmas."
