Bonné Scott Samples

Bonné Scott was born in Ohio where she won her first art show in first grade. There was no art in the home where she was raised, so it was a high school field trip to the LA Museum of Art that truly opened her eyes. As a student at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, she found an instructor who spurred her on and inspired her, that man was teacher/artist Robert Reynolds. Having already worked in oils, Robert would show her the challenge and joys of watercolors. Although Bonné works in all mediums now, it is still watercolor that holds her heart.

Bonné has works in private collections across the U.S. and a major abstract work on the wall of the Kennedy Library at Cal Poly. It is this love in all things artistic that led her to opening a teaching studio in Atascadero.

“A Sense Of Identity”

The Atascadero Art Association's members showing through March in the Atascadero Library's display of art work, “A Sense of Identity,” are: Pat Cairns, Deborah Kyle Hintergardt, Nancy Koren, Cheryl Strahl and Charlene Martyn.

Olive Norris

Our condolences go to the family of Olive Norris, a long time Association member and faithful member of the Monday Painters. She passed away December 24, 2014, a few months short of her 100th birthday.

The Monday Painters

The Monday Painters have decided to disband until an interest is shown for a regrouping at some future time. For several years it has been a beneficial opportunity to paint, get acquainted with fellow artists and to learn from each other through discussion and critique sessions.

Claire Venditti

Claire Venditti with her beautiful smile and paintings has not attended Monday Painters for several weeks. Her son Richard says that she is now under Hospice care. We miss her and send our love to her.

Cheryl Strahl

Cheryl Strahl is joining the Art Central Art Supply & Gallery beginning in March:

Art Central Art Supply & Gallery, 1329 Monterey St., SLO

Also, she has one photograph accepted into the 2015 Beacon Art Show and will be exhibiting work in the Creekside Brewery, SLO, beginning March 1 (through SLOMA's Art About Town).
